From Anne.

We are now coming into one of nature's most beautiful seasons. Harvest is finished and as the harvest song says, 'All is safely gathered in ere the winter storms begin'.

The school children have had their 2 weeks half term or Tatty Holiday. They are now back to school and some practising for their Christmas performances or carol services. Others are working hard towards their mock exams that take place in January.

The clocks have gone back and the evenings are very quickly drawing in. The days are becoming colder and the coal fires and wood burners are being lit. We all like to be snug and warm in our houses.

We must remember at this time those who are alone or homeless. We think about the many organisations that help the needy and the homeless, whether with food donations, finding shelter or many other acts of kindness.

As I said, we are now coming into one of nature's most beautiful seasons. The leaves fall off the tree causing our drains to block and cover our pavements and gardens. Before this we are treated to the most spectacular colour changes to the leaves on the trees. The colours range from green, to reds, yellow and brown. The different textures of the trees and colours are spectacular. Sadly many trees in Stonehaven have been taken down due to flood relief works.

Take a drive down Low Wood Road and look at the beautiful colours to the trees at the entrance to Dunnottar Woods. Further from home the area of Perth with all its different types of trees, displays the most stunning scenery.

On Sunday 10th November we join with others from all over the area at South Church, as we remember those that were killed in action or because of wars. This is a time when we can pay our respect to those that gave so much for others. Many of us will not have lived through the first or second World War, but still remember our relations or friends of relatives who were killed in action.

Coming from Gosport to Stonehaven the Falklands and Gulf wars bring back tragic memories. I remember with my children watching the ships, in both the Falklands and Gulf wars, sail out and return to Portsmouth. Both sides of Portsmouth Harbour were lined with thousands of well-wishers, hoping for the crews to return home safely. Sadly some ships were never to return. Many Memorial Services took place in our local churches. It was these two latter wars that bring back so many tragic memories of those who died.

We remember those who died by wearing our poppies with pride. Our churches are decorated with poppies, wreaths laid and our poppies worn, we will remember them.

A poem called 'We Shall Keep Faith' by Moira Michael

Oh! You who sleep in Flanders Fields,
Sleep sweet – to rise anew!
We caught the torch you threw
And holding high, we keep the Faith
With All who died.

We cherish, too, the poppy red
That grows on fields where valor led;
It seems to signal to the skies

That blood of heroes never dies,
But lends a lustre to the red
Of the flower that blooms above the dead
In Flanders Fields.

And now the Torch and Poppy Red
We wear in honour of our dead.
Fear not that ye have died for naught;
We'll teach the lesson that ye wrought
In Flanders Fields.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old: Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning, We will remember them.

Report on St James

The rota for services is almost complete until Christmas.

The AGM will be on Sunday, 17th November after the 10.30 am service.

Report on St Philip's

The elm tree has been cut down. The wood has been put up for sale on Stonehaven Facebay.

Worship

Arma reported that the Worship Group is working well and the members are very supportive of each other.

Rev Michael Turner, Laurencekirk, has been in hospital. Peter is to contact the Bishop to offer any help and will also send a get-well card.

Discussion with Bishop Andrew

The Northern Cluster meeting had taken place. Peter is involved in the Treasurers' Group, David with the Buildings Group. It is hoped that over the next 2 years we visit other churches for their services. We have had one visitor from Brechin on a weekday.

Fabric

Church: the bell is not working properly and is historically incorrect. David has written to Taylor's Bell Foundry stating the problem. No money has been paid at the moment. The Exhibition is almost complete. There are some technical problems with the computer display.

The dedication of the Exhibition will take place on Saturday, 16th November at 4 pm. David is going to speak to the Granite City Brass Band to see if they are available to play for this event and Anne will speak to the Kilwhang bell ringers. Ellie will help David with the invitations.

Thanks was expressed to David Smail for attending to the carpet tiles in the church.

Hall: The upgrade to the toilets should be complete next week.

Fund Raising/Social

Very successful Book Browse in July, the Sunday opening is proving to be popular.

AOCB

The Congregational Roll needs to be updated before the AGM. David reported on the credit card device now available at the Tolbooth Museum. This may be something for future use at St James.

Next Meeting: 9th October 2019

Harvest

Please can I say a huge thank you to everyone who prepared and served a delicious harvest lunch following the harvest service, we are very blessed to have excellent cooks and bakers in our congregation. Thank you to all who sat down and enjoyed the lunch.

AND another huge thank you to everyone who contributed to the harvest decorations in the church windows and altar steps. The food was donated to the Cyrenians and the flowers continued to decorate the church for further services. Thank you, Mr Lees, for the flowers at the altar in memory of your family.

St James

13th February: Annual Congregational Meeting. There was a good attendance and the Rector gave a general survey of the last year which showed a general upward trend in all directions. He said that the late Mrs Christie (widow of Dean Christie) had left £100 free of death duty to the Church Endowment Fund. Greetings cards and 72 postal orders and a letter from the Bishop had been sent to members of the congregation serving in the forces. There was still a balance of £11-9-8d in the fund for future use.

It was the Vestry's wish that the Harvest Thanksgiving boxes should be used again and it was hoped that most of the congregation would avail themselves of one. Since the free will offering scheme had started some years ago many of those who had joined had passed away and others had not joined in their place with the result that the numbers in the scheme had fallen off greatly. It was hoped that those who were not members would come forward and join. The financial report showed a credit balance of £261 which was a record for St James. Messrs Delgarno and Charles Mutch were re-elected to the Vestry, Major Alexander Innes re-elected as People's Warden, Colonel Scott Duff as Rector's Warden. It was decided to hold a garden fete on 18th July if Major Innes would grant the use of the grounds.

5th June 1945: A letter of resignation was read from Mr Thomas Goodfellow, organist. The Vestry accepted his resignation with regret. The Rector suggested contacting the organist at the Cathedral in Aberdeen who might be in a position to submit the name of a suitable person.

2nd July 1945: An application from Brian Simpson of Aberdeen for the post of organist/choirmaster was considered.

Mr Simpson played the organ on Sunday, 1st July. It was unanimously decided to appoint Mr Simpson to the post at a salary of £52 per annum.

11th December 1945: A request from Mr Simpson to get a new type of Psalter was refused. The entire membership of the Vestry think it is not the time to make so drastic a change in the Psalter. Permission would be given however to purchase Psalters like the one now in use as they were not sufficient for all the members of the choir. Also permission was given to purchase a further supply of new hymn books (A & M). It was decided to close the 'Christie Memorial Fund' and add that amount to the general account. It was also decided to close the fund opened to provide a memorial for Mr Wardle, a previous organist for some years. Mr George Stephen wished to resign from the Vestry owing to pressure of work. Colonel Scott Duff also wished to resign his position as Rector's Warden. He was leaving Fetteresso Castle to live in London.

It was decided to let the Church Park to Mr Lees for grazing purposes for the sum of £1 per year.

The Vestry agreed to purchase a gift for Mr Manson of the Union Bank in recognition of his success in dealing with the Church funds. A golf bag was suggested.

Mr Law was asked to obtain an estimate from the ironmonger for wire guards for the windows in the Baptistry. Mr Law reported that all the outside woodwork in the Rectory needed painting in the spring and the Vestry decided to ask Mr Masson to put in an estimate for this. The question of putting electric light in the church was debated. After some discussion it was decided that the church should be lit by electricity. Mr Law would approach Messrs McRobb of Adelphi, Aberdeen for advice. As the Vestry thought this was a most important piece of work they should get an expert in church lighting to help in the matter. Mr Law was also instructed to contact a plumber and slater to check the church roof as there were signs of damp on the inner walls.

Priests and Pipes Exhibition

Now that the work of creating the 'Priests and Pipes' Exhibition in the West End of St James' church in Stonehaven is nearing completion, we are very pleased to announce that the Primus of the Scottish Episcopal Church, the Most Revd Mark Strange has kindly agreed to lead the Service of Dedication. The Service will be held on Saturday 16th November 2019, and will start at 4:00 pm. Also taking part will be our own Bishop, Right Revd Andrew Swift.

We extend a warm welcome to anyone from the diocese to join us. Invitations are also being issued to the very large number of people who have contributed to the Exhibition, including donors, suppliers and volunteers. Some people even fall into all three categories!!

As the Exhibition covers church history and the role of church organs, the service will contain elements of previous celebrations held at St James and some special musical items. Full details of the Exhibition are on our web site at <https://www.stjames-stonehaven.org.uk/exhibition/> .

After the service the Primus will asked to cut the celebration cake, and coffee and tea will be available, and of course the Exhibition will be open for all to view.
